Buller Thinks Boers Will Leave Ladysmith.

ASSEMBLE TO OPPOSE ROBERTS.

Relaxing Their Hold of Different Positions—British Pursuers May Soon Occupy Bloemfontein—British Losses During War Aggregate 11,102.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—The Boers are leaving all their positions held by them on British territory and are concentrating for the defense of their own. Sir Redvers Buller thinks they are about to raise the siege of Ladysmith, and this is the large news of the day.

General Clements reports that the force confronting him has been greatly diminished. Ten thousand men are estimated to have gone from the Colesberg district alone. The Boers are also retreating their steps from Zululand. Thus they are relaxing their hold on a 1 sides in order to assemble to oppose Lord Roberts. He is pressing on steadily toward Bloemfontein. This is shown by his inconsequential telegram from Paardeberg, 50 or 60 miles away. Doubtless he is miles behind the column that is pursuing the Boers, and the next important news may be the occupation of Bloemfontein.

Nothing has been heard from the case of Cronje for two days. Although the last words of the war office were that there was no news for publication there is a strong disposition to believe that favorable information has been received, but is being withheld until the operations culminate in something more conclusive. There is an equally strong disposition to think that General Cronje has got away.

Owing to the lack of transport, the British are not likely to invade Boer territory, except where Lord Roberts is operating. General Buller will have to stop at the Drakensburg mountains. Probably a part of his 40,000 men will ultimately join the legions of Lord Roberts.

If, as General Buller avers, the Boers are retreating from him, then the news on every side is favorable to the British.

Nevertheless troops continue to go up. The war office thinks the call to veterans to rejoin the colors, together with the bounty, will bring 45,000 men to the home defense. The urgency with which the home defense is pressed excites some wonder.

With the casualties just reported the British losses in killed, wounded and captured now aggregate 11,102.

HALF KILLED OR MISSING.

Boers Shelled the British Convoy, Before Taking It.

CRADOCK, Cape Colony, Feb. 21.—Details have arrived here with respect to the capture of the British convoy at Riet river. It appears that the wagons were lagged near the drift and that the convoy was attacked by 1,800 Boers with four guns. The shelling continued all day.

One hundred and eighty wagons were captured, containing provisions and forage. Half the drivers and leaders were killed or are missing.

resident commissioner has sumptuous apartments in a subterranean 'bomb proof.'

"The Cape police have a large hall, with a piano. The Mafeking hotel dining room seats 40. All these have been dug out and are impervious to shells."

STREATOR AND KAY GUILTY.

Jury Convicted Them of Embracery in Hazlett Case.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The jury found the defendants guilty in the case against Lieutenant Colonel James B. R. Streator, of Washington, and Major J. C. Kay, of Pittsburg, who were charged with embracery and conspiracy, the specific act being the attempt to influence a juror. Frank Watson, who was sitting on a case at the May quarter sessions court in which Major Samuel Hazlett, a friend of Kay and Streator, was acquitted of embezzlement as a banker. At the November term Hazlett was convicted.

When District Attorney Templeton moved for sentence, Major Kay, replying to the court, said: "Nothing to say," and Colonel Streator, "nothing at all." Judge Taylor sentenced them to pay costs of prosecution and a fine of $300 each. D. F. Patterson, of Pittsburg, and John C. Bane asked the court to fix bail preparatory to an appeal to the superior court. They furnished bond in $600 each. Judge Taylor, upon the return of the verdict, stated the court agreed with the verdict, which was warranted by the evidence.

DIFFERENCES WITH GEN. HUTTON.

For Cae Thing, Laurier Said He Was Insubordinate.

OTTAWA, Feb. 21.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Canadian premier, made a statement relative to differences which existed between the government and General Hutton, who retired from the command of the Dominion militia and left for South African service last week. It is in the form of a reply to Colonel Prior, and was in part that differences have existed between the government and the general which it was disposed to let pass, in view of his recall to South African service; that the differences were not over broad questions of policy, but that General Hutton was insubordinate and indifferent and deliberately ignored the authority of the minister in the administration of affairs.

SOLDIERS TO BE INTERRED TODAY.

Eighty Who Died In Cuba and Porto Rico.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The remains of 80 soldiers will be buried at the national cemetery, at Arlington, today with the usual military honors. Most of these men lost their lives in Cuba during and since the Spanish war.

The remainder died in the military service in Porto Rico.

A Warning Against Mormonism.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The suppression of polygamy was further considered by the house committee on judiciary. Dr. Josiah Strong stated that while the Mormons were only one-fifteenth the number of the Presbyterians (north), the Methodists and Congregationalists, yet in a stated period they had increased more than all three combined. If the government did not act it was not unlikely that Joseph Smith's prophecy, that every state west of the Mississippi river would be brought under Mormon influence, would be fulfilled.

A PRESENT OF $5,000.

Mr. Day Testified He Accepted Money From Clark—Two Witnesses Clashed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—Senator Clark continued and completed his testimony before the senate committee on elections, but his testimony did not attract as much attention as that of other witnesses who were heard during the day. The other witnesses were Frank Corbett, recalled; E. C. Day, who was the Clark leader on the floor of the Montana house of representatives, and John B. Wellcome, who was a general manager for Mr. Clark. Mr. Wellcome did not take the stand until late and his examination in chief was not completed. He made a general and specific denial of all the allegations made by Whiteside and others. These denials were made in response to questions by Mr. Faulkner, and the witness uniformly answered, "I did not," "No" or "Nothing like it occurred."

Mr. Day admitted having accepted a present of $5,000 from Mr. Clark, and said he understood that it was given as a testimonial and as compensation for his services. The oath of office, as a member of the house, was read and seemed to produce quite an impression upon some of the committee.

Mr. Corbett and Justice Pigott were confronted for a brief period and in a rather dramatic manner. They both testified concerning a mortgage held by Mr. Corbett, and there was a direct clash in statements.

IDAHO STRIKE INVESTIGATION

Witness Said Courts Were Operating When Martial Law Was Declared.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The hearing of witnesses in the investigation of alleged improper action by the United States military authorities at Wardner, Ida., began before the house committee on military affairs. Among those present were Brigadier General Merriam and Governor Steunenberg, of Idaho.

The first witness, A. A. Fraser, a lawyer, of Shoshone county, where the trouble occurred, testified that the civil courts were doing business at the time when martial law is said to have been in operation. Representative Lentz, who conducted the inquiry, explained that this was a ground work for judging the need of martial law.

Fred C. Roberts, a lawyer, said he applied for writs of habeas corpus for the arrested men, but the courts held that they would not interfere with the action of the governor, which, in effect, the witness said, was a suspension of the writ of habeas corpus. The governor proclaimed a state of insurrection because a mine was dynamited.

SETTLED WITH MINERS.

Operators Raised Wages on Indianapolis Agreement, In the Hocking Valley.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 21.—An amicable settlement was reached at a joint conference of the Ohio Mine Workers and the Hocking Valley coal operators for the purpose of deciding upon a day wage scale for persons employed about the mines other than those coming under the Indianapolis agreement.

The new scale, which will go into effect on April 1, at which time the Indianapolis agreement becomes effective, gives inside day laborers $2.10 per day, and other labor is advanced proportionately.

Another conference will be held before the 1st of April for the purpose of considering some changes in the docking system.

An Agreement In Respect.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The conferees on the finance bill were in session several hours, but it was announced at the adjournment that no agreement had been reached upon any point, although prospects were that an agreement might be finally reached.

Another Anti-Trust Resolution.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—Representative Richardson, of Tennessee, introduced in the house a resolution aimed at the paper trust on the lines of his resolutions of Monday against the sugar trust.

Mayo's Remains Moved.

QUEBEC, Feb. 21.—The remains of the late Edwin Mayo, the actor, were taken to Phil. d. d. d. for interment.

NEED OF A CAUCUS

Fate of the Porto Rican Bill Is In Doubt.

REPUBLICANS MAY MEET TONIGHT.

The Leaders In the House Anxious. Some of the Party Members Reported to Be Opposed to the Pending Tariff Measure—Those Who Spoke.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—Again there were speeches in the house upon the Porto Rican tariff bill. Five hours were consumed in their delivery. Mr. Hopkins (Ills.) spoke in support of the bill and Mr. Newlands (Nev.) and Mr. Swanson (Va.) in opposition to it. The speakers devoted themselves almost exclusively to the constitutional question involved and were listened to with attention. The Republican leaders are becoming nervous over the fate of the bill. They have only a majority of 14 over the opposition, which is solidly opposed to the measure. Eight votes from the Republican side would, therefore, defeat, and there are from 10 to 15 Republican votes in doubt.

A movement for a Republican caucus is being agitated. The general understanding was that one would be held tonight. The Republicans reported to be opposed to the bill are Messrs. McCall, Massachusetts; Littlefield, Maine; Powers, Vermont; Thompson, New York; Bromwell, Ohio; Larimer, Illinois; Heatwole, Minneapolis; Tongue, Oregon; Loud, California; Jones and Cushman, Washington, and Crumpacker, Indiana.

GIVE FILIPINOS SELF-GOVERNMENT.

The Burden of Mr. Kenny's Speech In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—Discussion of the Philippine question was resumed for a time in the senate, Mr. Kenny speaking against the retention by the United States of the islands and urging that the Filipinos be accorded the right to govern themselves.

After the passage of 52 pension bills and a number of bills on the general calendar, consideration was resumed of the Hawaiian government bill. Some amendments were agreed to, but consideration of the measure was not concluded.

Japs Wanted to Fight.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Feb. 21.—The Japanese residents of this province have renewed their offer to raise and equip, at their own personal expense, troops of at least 100 trained men, 50 of them formerly soldiers in the army of Japan, for service with the British forces in South Africa. The Japanese are eager to go to the front, and all the volunteers have made themselves eligible for service by taking out papers of British citizenship.

Canada Made Protests.

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 21.—Hon. William Mulock stated in the house that the government had made a strong protest to the British government and the governments of New South Wales and Victoria against the concessions granted by Australia to the Eastern Extension Cable Company, which would have the effect of jeopardizing the construction of the Pacific cable.

Accused of Committing Frauds.

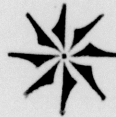

CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—A capias was issued for the arrest of James Mullhall, 1841 Wabash avenue, head of the Merchant Commission company, charging him with fraudulently obtaining on credit consignments from commission houses, selling the goods for cash and eluding creditors. It is thought he has secured over $50,000 from houses in various parts of the United States.

Turkish Minister's Request.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The Turkish minister, Ali Ferrouh Bey, recently returned from Constantinople, accompanied by his wife and sister. He requested that the press respect the customs of his country and refrain from references to affairs personal to his own household. He said he felt sure that a nation of such hospitality would readily appreciate this request.

PENSIONS

Now Being Paid by Pennsylvania Company.

BIG LIST ALREADY.

Employees Provide the Fund Themselves

ON LINES EAST OF PITTSBURG

Will Soon be Inaugurated on That Part of the Road West.

LOYALTY TO THE COMPANY

[From Louisville Courier Journal January 3, 1900.]

The publication in the Courier Journal yesterday of the fact that on January 1 the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's system of pensioning old employees had gone into operation and that at once 950 names were placed on the pension list, suggests a further inquiry into the relations of that great employer of labor and its men. It is well known that in that relationship the company has been a model for other corporations, never, in all the immensity of its monetary interests, losing sight of the importance of the fair treatment of its faithful servants, whether they stood at the top of the official list or ranked among the humblest of its employees. This new pension system is the outgrowth of the Company's Voluntary Relief association, which provides that in the event of sickness or disablement of its members they shall be paid a certain sum during the continuance of such condition, and a certain sum in the event of the death of the member. Membership is entirely voluntary. The Pennsylvania company itself bears all the expense of conducting the business, besides guaranteeing the fund. Thus all dues and fees paid in by the men are absolutely devoted to the relief of the members. Moreover, the company handles the money, guaranteeing 4 per cent interest thereon. A feature of the scheme was through these means, to create a fund which should ultimately be used as a pension fund. This point has now been reached for that part of the organization embracing the lines east of Pittsburgh—the Pennsylvania road proper—and, as already stated, 950 men are at once the beneficiaries of the system. It is all the more creditable, alike to the company and to the men, that this pension system is not a charity on the part of the corporation, but a wise and well managed provision whereby the men themselves are given opportunity to provide for their own old age in a self respecting way. The company assumes responsibility for the safeguarding of the funds, all the expense of management, and guarantees the investment of the funds, and thus gives the fullest cooperation in the proper working of the enterprise. The employees have three representatives in the management; the company two. The pension system provides that a man who has been 30 years in the service of the Pennsylvania Railroad company shall be retired on a pension equal to about 50 per cent of the salary or wages he earned at the time of his retirement. No further duties are expected of him, and there are no requirements other than that he shall be loyal to the interests of the company, ready with such advice, knowledge and friendly assistance as it may be in his power to give.

Pays Out Much Money.

Since wages range from $55 a month for brakemen and switchmen to $140 a month for engineers, and as the pension list at its outset includes nearly 1,000 names, it is evident that the amount of money paid out each month on account of pensions must reach a very considerable sum. Following the usual course of procedure with most of its innovations and improvements, the pension system is first introduced on the lines east of Pittsburgh. As soon as possible it will be put into effect over all the lines operated by the company.

Of course, everybody who travels is familiar with the perfect system that has made the Pennsylvania a marvel of mechanical construction and equipment. The conditions that are so valuable to the traveler could scarcely exist were there not a corresponding perfection in the organization of the human forces that have created and maintained this railroad whose name is synonymous with luxury, rapidity and safety in traveling. Excepting some of the long western lines that cover great stretches of open country, the Pennsylvania system is the longest in the world. It is actually the greatest railway operating in thickly settled sections of the country. Its operations extend from Peoria, Chicago, St. Louis, Petoskey, Mackinaw City, Louisville, Cincinnati, Toledo, Cleveland, Erie and Wheeling, W. Va., into Pittsburgh, and then east to Washington and Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York and other seaboard points.

Operated by an Army of Men.

To operate this enormous system takes an army of 100,000 men, and to conduct it successfully requires that they be formed into a perfectly harmonious organization, working with mechanical precision under one controlling head. To keep such an immense machine working smoothly, of course, requires the nicest adjustment of all the parts and all must be quickly responsive to that controlling head. Recognizing this necessity, the management has always sought to establish the most perfect relationship between the corporation and its men. If the humblest office boy or the newest brakeman has a grievance, there is always somebody he can lay it before, and he is sure that if his complaint is just its cause will be corrected. The man who starts in at the bottom knows that his promotion will be limited only by opportunity and the limitations of his own ability. Promotions are made from the ranks; the company never goes outside of its own forces to find a man to do a certain thing or to fill an office. The merit system alone prevails in making promotions, and a man's rise is slow or fast as his own ability justifies.

Advanced on Merit System.

While seniority is regarded, yet advancement depends on the faithful discharge of duty and a capacity for increased responsibility. The company simply wants the best man it can get for the job whether he has been in service two years or ten years. Favoritism of bosses, kinship, politics, religion or any other consideration but fitness cuts no figure in the line of promotion. The men know these facts, and the result is a high standard of efficiency. Another result is that the company's employees stay in its service much longer than men commonly remain with one corporation.

The company exacts a high standard on the part of its men, especially the men employed on trains. A system of physical and mental examinations has been in force for a number of years, resulting in a higher average among the men than is maintained on even other well-managed roads. The company, the public and the men themselves all derive great benefit from this fact. But, as its requirements are high, the company recognizes a corresponding obligation on its own part, and it has repeatedly sacrificed what might have been regarded as its own interests rather than sacrifice those of its employees.

Did Not Reduce Wages.

When the hard times came in 1893 and almost every corporation was lowering wages and cutting salaries, when, in common with others, the Pennsylvania Railroad company was losing money, especially on its lines west of Pittsburgh, the company entirely disregarded dividends and even ordinary and necessary improvements, rather than reduce wages. They remained absolutely as they were when the company was making money. It is true, there was less work to be done, and consequently fewer men were needed to do it, and fewer hours to do it in; but the scale of wages was maintained. Now that the company is again prosperous, the men share in its prosperity. The trainmen earn an average of 30 per cent more than they did two years ago, because they cover a greater mileage and put in more time. Not many corporations could have maintained the wage scale through 1893 and the succeeding years, but the Pennsylvania is unique among great railway companies in that the income from its resources is large enough to pay all of its fixed charges, and in hard times its faithful servants do not have to suffer.

Making Many Improvements.

The management believes in good wages; on an average a brakeman and a switchman makes $55 a month; a fireman, $85; a conductor, $100; an engineer, $140. During the five years including and following 1893, the company not only passed its dividends, but it neglected its rails, its bridges, its equipment, rather than reduce its wage scale. This was a hard policy to follow in a railroad company that has been the pioneer in so many mechanical improvements, in train service, in air brakes, in water tanks between the rails of its tracks, in a block signal system—in short, in all that makes travel safe, luxurious and swift, while at the same time building up a property that yields gross earnings of $148,000,000. Of course, the neglect of its road and equipment during these "lean years" has made it necessary to spend an extraordinarily large amount of money, now that the company can afford to put its property in the condition it ordinarily maintains. Many hundreds of thousands of dollars are being spent on bridges, on track, and on equipment.

One of the marked results of the policy of the company as to its employees is the raising of the physical, intellectual and moral standard of railroad service. The "rounder" has about disappeared from the ranks of the Pennsylvania employees. A man or a boy who is once enrolled in its service is sure of his place and sure of his promotion, so long as he is faithful and efficient. In sickness or distress he is cared for; if an injustice is done him, he may have wronged, and now, by this last step of a pension, the comfort of old age is assured him. Of course, it is all business, but it is business wisely and honorably conducted.

LEAK IN MAIN ON RIVER AVENUE.

Monroe Patterson to Relinquish Active Management of East End Brick Works.

There is a large leak in the gas main in River avenue, near the big washout which occurred last fall, and unless some repairs are made soon the leak may result in some damage to property in that part of the city. Yesterday afternoon, after the East End school had been dismissed, and the school children living at the west end of River avenue were returning to their homes, some boys discovered the leak. A light was applied and huge flames went up from the leak in the main. Until dark the boys played about the gas light, which at times was very large.

NEW BRICK MACHINE

Changes to Be Made at Brick Works in East End.

Alex Stevenson, of the East End Brick Manufacturing company, made the statement yesterday that within the next 10 days a new pressed brick machine would be placed in the plant in East End. The machine will have the capacity of turning out 12,000 brick per day, and is the only press of its kind in this part of the county. Johnson also stated that as soon as enough brick could be secured ahead of the orders work would commence upon the erection of an additional kiln.

Mr. Monroe Patterson, who has been identified in the management of the works for the past year, will not look after affairs at the works this year. When interviewed last evening Mr. Patterson said: "Well, I guess I will let Mr. Johnson guide the ship from now on."

Relieves and Cures

Tongaline relieves pain quickly. The pain of rheumatism, gout, neuralgia and similar diseases is acute and often terrible. The first step toward a cure is to remove this agony. Two or three doses of Tongaline in quick succession take away the pain. But Tongaline does not stop there as ordinary lotions and liniments do. It deals with the poisons which cause the disease, and whether they be uric acid, sodium urate, or disease germs, Tongaline causes them to be expelled from the body by the simultaneous action of the liver, kidneys, bowels and skin.

To find relief from their agony many unfortunates have been driven to use opium or morphine. Tongaline contains neither opium or morphine. For the relief of severe headache it is far superior to the innumerable combinations of acetylid sold as "headache cures."

Tongaline is a result of the highest discoveries in pharmaceutical science. For twenty years it has cured the diseases for which it is specific. It has received the highest endorsement from physicians. It has proved a blessing in the hands of sufferers themselves. It is harmless in its nature, sure in its action, and its use is followed by no unpleasant or dangerous results such as follow many of the treatments prescribed for rheumatism.

Take Tongaline as a preventive on the first indication of rheumatic pains, rheumatic fever, neuralgia pains or headache. It will prevent the threatened attack and remove the poisons from the system before the disease becomes chronic and stubborn. The ingredients of Tongaline act harmoniously on all the organs of elimination, the kidneys, liver, bowels and skin, so that the whole body is regenerated and purified.

TRADE MARK

There is no mystery about Tongaline. The label on the bottle tells you what it contains. If you understand medicine or pharmacy you will understand on what a sure foundation it is constructed. There are 64 doses in a bottle of Tongaline, costing $1.00. You can get it from your druggist.

REPUBLICANS, select the right man as mayor. Vital interests are at stake.

REPUBLICANS, select the right man as marshal. It is an important office.

REPUBLICANS, be very careful as to your councilmen. This city has been cursed by and through incompetent and bad men in councilmanic positions. You know this to be a FACT. The good of the party demands that such men SHALL
 NOT occupy positions of trust.

WHAN AND GRIM.

We believe that the city of East Liverpool, combined with C. F. Bough, W.
 A. Weaver and S. J. Faulk, can afford to quietly laugh at Attorney Clark and his clients Whan and Grim, in the endeavor of the latter to collect money for services alleged to be due, said claim having been rejected by city council.
 Mayor Bough is a just man, and he believed that Whan and Grim had been guilty of conduct unbecoming officers of this municipality. Believing this, he exercised his ABSOLUTE RIGHT, as chief magistrate of the municipality and suspended them. Further, we believe he did right, and that he produced evidence which, before any other tribunal in the land save the council as then constituted, would have sustained Mayor Bough and
 have dismissed from the force the said Whan and Grim. Attorney Clark has carried his THREAT into execution. It don't cost much to do such a thing, and may act as a safety valve to the disciple
 of Blackstone.

CIRCUIT COURT DECISION.

Section 917, Revised Statutes, directs
 the commissioners of the various counties to cause their annual report to be published in two newspapers of different political parties. In Franklin county the report was published in the Columbus Press Post (Democratic) and the Columbus Dispatch (Independent). The State Journal (Republican) sought to enjoin the commissioners
 from publishing the report in the Dispatch because it was not a paper of a political party opposed to the Press Post
 party, but simply a neutral or independent paper without a party. Judge Summers of the circuit court, decided that "An independent paper is not a newspaper of a political party within the meaning of Section 917, Revised Statutes, although it may have sup-

WINE OF CARDUI

HEALTHY OLD AGE.

 MRS E. B. TOWNSEND.

McLURE'S
Wine of Cardui

It is the devout wish of nearly all people to live to a ripe old age.
 None of us want to die young. This universal desire can be realized if care be taken of the health in early and middle life. A little precaution then will add many years to our existence. Death can be kept away a long time. Happy, healthy old age will be the lot of the woman who promptly corrects the ailments which afflict her sex. In youth, Wine of Cardui will take the female child safely over the dividing line between girlhood and womanhood. As a wife she needs it to help her through the trials of pregnancy and childbirth with as little discomfort as possible. At the Change of Life it will help her over the dangerous place that appears in her pathway between 40 and 50. Then will come many years of truly blissful existence. She will grow old slowly and gracefully. To the last she will preserve that charm and beauty which are always characteristic of perfectly healthy grandmothers.
 It is for women alone to decide whether they will be healthy or sick. The remedy for their sickness is close at hand.

BRADSHAW ST. RESIDENTS WERE INCENSED.

An electric light pole on Bradshaw avenue was the cause of a small war this morning. The sidewalk where the company wanted to locate the pole is only about four feet wide and if they had put the pole up there wouldn't have been room for pedestrians to get past. The residents kicked, but to no avail and finally complaint was made to President Peach. He went to the fire station and Officer Woods was sent to the spot with orders to arrest the first man who attempted to dig the hole. When Peach arrived at the place he found a lot of angry workmen but Woods was doing his duty and there was no work going on. The matter was fixed up and the company will locate the pole at another place.

"While I am taking no part in the primary election yet I desire to approve all that has been said in the News Review in regard to Mr. Metsch and his candidacy for the mayoralty. I have known Mr. Metsch for nearly a quarter of a century and have frequently had business relations with him, as well as being connected with him a good portion of the time in official positions. I have always found him fair and liberal and unbending when matters of justice were to be settled by him. He was always interested in any public move for the good of the city, and filled the official positions he held in a loyal manner, always working for the interests of the taxpayers as if they were his own. I am satisfied he would make a good mayor and know that he is well qualified to perform the duties of the office."

CONFERENCE TODAY.

Kentucky Attorneys Try to Agree on Suits.

TO SAVE CONFLICT OF COURTS.

Want the Decision Regarding One Injunction Application to Settle Both. Democratic Legislature Reconfirmed the Election of Goebel.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 21.—The attorneys for Taylor and Beckham held a joint conference today for the purpose of discussing propositions to settle which of the two injunction suits relating to the contest over the governorship shall have precedence on the consolidation of both cases, in order to avoid a clash between courts over the question of jurisdiction. The Beckham suit is set for a hearing before Judge Cantrill, at Georgetown, Friday, and the attorneys will attempt to agree upon a plan of action and facts forming the basis of the suit, and as to what judge the suit shall be tried before.

The Democratic members of the two houses of the legislature met in joint session and by a vote of 74 to 2 ratified the former proceedings by which William Goebel was declared governor and J. C. W. Beckham lieutenant governor, and through which Beckham, since the death of Goebel, claims title to the office of governor. The Republican members of the legislature remained away from the joint session, having decided in caucus not to attend.

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTIONS.

Ten Republican Magistrates Elected In Philadelphia—Results In Other Places In the State.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—The returns show the election of the ten Republican candidates for magistrates, Messrs. South, Cunningham, Smith, Gillespie, Harrison, Kockersperger, Ackerman, Stratton, Wagner and Pullinger.

For the other six the leaders in the returns thus far are O'Brien (Democrat and Municipal League), Lloyd (Democrat), and Ladner, Risinbrown and Jermon (Municipal League).

Later returns point to the election of Peil (Democrat) as the sixteenth man. BETHLEHEM, Pa., Feb. 21.—Big Democratic gains resulted in a change in the political complexion of both council and school board.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 21.—Honors were about even at the election, although the Republicans elected enough councilmen to retain control of the common and select councils.

McKEESPORT, Pa., Feb. 21.—A. B. O'Neil defeated Dr. R. J. Black for mayor by a plurality of 25.

ALTOONA, Pa., Feb. 21.—All three Republican school directors were elected by about 600 majority. Three Republican and two Democratic select councilmen were elected, leaving that body stand: Democrats, 5; Republicans, 4. Each party elected four common councilmen. That branch is a tie, 9 to 9.

The bitter contest for alderman in the Third ward between Lewis Casey (Democrat), president of common council, and the present incumbent, George A. Dobyne, who was defeated for the Democratic nomination, resulted in victory for Dobyne by 78 votes. Dobyne was endorsed by Republicans.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 21.—Controller Joseph E. Lewis (Republican) was re-elected by about 14,000 votes. Republicans continued to control councils.

COLENZO WAS OCCUPIED.

Hart Took It After Weak Resistance. Boers Apparently In Full Retreat.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—A dispatch received at the war office from General Buller contained the following:

"Blow's FARM, Tuesday, Feb. 20.—4:10 p. m.—The fusilier brigade yesterday took Hlangwane hill, the right of the enemy's position and commanding Colenso, the rest of the force advancing toward the Tugela. This morning the enemy has withdrawn all the troops north of the Tugela and had practically evacuated Colenso. Today General Hart occupied Colenso after a very slight resistance by a weak rear guard, and we hold the line of the Tugela, on the south side, from Colenso to Eagles Nest. The enemy seem to be in full retreat and apparently are only holding the position they occupy across the Colenso-Ladysmith railway, where it is close to the angle of the Tugela, with a weak rear guard. Hart's advance guard is crossing at Colenso. "Our casualties yesterday and today have, I hope, been but few."

DECIDED FOR COMPANY.

Ohio Supreme Court Made a Decision Effecting State Food and Dairy Commissioner.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 21.—The supreme court, in a decision handed down, holds that the state food and dairy commissioner has no right to demand and compel makers and dealers in foods to furnish him with samples of their products or goods for examination.

The decision was made in the case of the state ex rel Reynolds, a deputy inspector, against a dairy company. In this case Reynolds had demanded samples of the company's product for analysis and was refused. The lower courts here had held for the company, and the supreme court in its decision affirmed this decision.

DELEGATIONS HUSTLING.

Both Milwaukee and Kansas City Confident of Getting the Democratic Convention.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The delegations from Milwaukee and Kansas City, and so far as rivalry seems to be confined to these two places, put in a busy day, advancing the claims of their respective cities as the place for holding the next Democratic national convention. Both cities have ample headquarters at the Raleigh hotel, where the national committee is to meet. Probably not more than 25 of the national committee have reached here and they are widely scattered around the various hotels and in private residences.

National committeeman Wall expressed the opinion that a majority of the committee now in the city are favorable to the Wisconsin city while ex-Congressman Dockery was equally positive that the Missouri city will secure the convention.

BRYAN TO BE JOINT NOMINEE.

Allen So Stated to Populists Convention Place and Date.

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 21.—At the meeting of the Populist national committee, presided over by Senator Butler, a proposition from the Texas delegation that May 9 be fixed as the date was amended to permit a committee to decide on both time and place. It was opposed vigorously by the Texas delegation as "cowardly and truckling to the Democrats."

"Bryan will be the nominee of both Democrats and Populists," said Senator Allen, "and the question of date makes little difference anyhow." The amendment to refer to a committee was voted down, and Wednesday, May 9, the same date as that of the middle-of-the-road convention at Cincinnati, was decided upon. Sioux Falls, S. D., was selected for the meeting place.

OBERLIN, O., Feb. 21.—President Barrows announced a gift of $40,000 for Oberlin college from the estate of William E. Osborne, of Pittsburg, who died in Florida a few weeks ago. Mr. Osborne was much interested in Oberlin college, and his will provided that the sum mentioned should be given for the endowment of the president's chair.

Manauense In Good Shape.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—Chief Engineer McDonald, of the transport Manauense, admitted on cross-examination before British Consul Pickersgill that he signed an incorrect statement while under pressure, favoring the owners of the vessel. This statement was to the effect that he considered the Manauense was in thoroughly good and seaworthy condition.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The name of another prominent southern Democrat was added to the list of those before the president for appointment on the new Philippine commission. He is Colonel A. A. Wiley, of Montgomery, Ala. Mr. Wiley was lieutenant colonel of a volunteer regiment from Alabama in the Spanish war.

Chicago Wheat Market.

CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—All the grain markets received a set back Tuesday, even the strength of corn evaporating under a pressure of long stuff showing profits. Wheat was depressed by weak cables and poor demand, and closed $\frac{1}{2}$ @ $\frac{1}{2}$ c lower. Corn declined $\frac{1}{4}$ @ $\frac{1}{4}$ c and oats $\frac{1}{2}$ @ $\frac{1}{2}$ c. Provisions closed irregular, a shade lower to $\frac{1}{2}$ @ $\frac{1}{2}$ c higher.

THE GRIM-WHAN SUITS ARE SET FOR HEARING

On a Legal Holiday and the Question May Arise as to Whether They Can be Tried.

The suits of Grim and Whan against Mayor Bough, the city of East Liverpool, W. A. Weaver and S. J. Faulk for $151.75 and $160.50, respectively, are set for hearing in the court of 'Squire Rose tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Tomorrow will be a legal holiday, and the question arises as to whether the suit can be legally tried on that day. Mayor Bough, when questioned on the subject, said he realized it was a legal holiday, but had nothing to say on the matter. He said his nerves were steady and he was not in the least alarmed. He remarked that some people were easy prey for attorneys, and he didn't propose to cross any bridges until he came to them.

Solicitor McGarry will defend the cases, and he said that he had not looked the law up in regard to legal holidays but had thought of the matter.

Attorney Clark, counsel for the plaintiffs, said the fact that tomorrow will be a legal holiday made no difference in regard to the case and that it would not be heard tomorrow anyway as a postponement would be asked.

Buller Thinks Boers Will Leave Ladysmith.

ASSEMBLE TO OPPOSE ROBERTS.

Relaxing Their Hold of Different Positions—British Pursuers May Soon Occupy Bloemfontein—British Losses During War Aggregate 11,102.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—The Boers are leaving all their positions held by them on British territory and are concentrating for the defense of their own. Sir Redvers Buller thinks they are about to raise the siege of Ladysmith, and this is the large news of the day.

General Clements reports that the force confronting him has been greatly diminished. Ten thousand men are estimated to have gone from the Colesberg district alone. The Boers are also retreating their steps from Zululand. Thus they are relaxing their hold on all sides in order to assemble to oppose Lord Roberts. He is pressing on steadily toward Bloemfontein. This is shown by his inconsequential telegram from Paardeberg, 50 or 60 miles away. Doubtless he is miles behind the column that is pursuing the Boers, and the next important news may be the occupation of Bloemfontein.

MAJOR GENERAL CHARLES TUCKER.
[Commanding Seventh Division British army in South Africa.]

Nothing has been heard from the case of Cronje for two days. Although the last words of the war office were that there was no news for publication there is a strong disposition to believe that favorable information has been received, but is being withheld until the operations culminate in something more conclusive. There is an equally strong disposition to think that General Cronje has got away.

Owing to the lack of transport, the British are not likely to invade Boer territory, except where Lord Roberts is operating. General Buller will have to stop at the Drakensberg mountains. Probably a part of his 40,000 men will ultimately join the legions of Lord Roberts.

If, as General Buller avers, the Boers are retreating from him, then the news on every side is favorable to the British.

Nevertheless troops continue to go up. The war office thinks the call to veterans to rejoin the colors, together with the bounty, will bring 45,000 men to the home defense. The urgency with which the home defense is pressed excites some wonder.

With the casualties just reported the British losses in killed, wounded and captured now aggregate 11,102.

HALF KILLED OR MISSING.

Boers Shelled the British Convoy, Before Taking It.

CRADOCK, Cape Colony, Feb. 21.—Details have arrived here with respect to the capture of the British convoy at Riet river. It appears that the wagons were lagged near the drift and that the convoy was attacked by 1,800 Boers with four guns. The shelling continued all day.

One hundred and eighty wagons were captured, containing provisions and forage. Half the drivers and leaders were killed or are missing.

"The Cape police have a large hall, with a piano. The Mafeking hotel dining room seats 40. All these have been dug out and are impervious to shells."

STREATOR AND KAY GUILTY.

Jury Convicted Them of Embracery in Hazlett Case.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The jury found the defendants guilty in the case against Lieutenant Colonel James B. R. Streator, of Washington, and Major J. C. Kay, of Pittsburg, who were charged with embracery and conspiracy, the specific act being the attempt to influence a juror. Frank Watson, who was sitting on a case at the May quarter sessions court in which Major Samuel Hazlett, a friend of Kay and Streator, was acquitted of embezzlement as a banker. At the November term Hazlett was convicted.

When District Attorney Templeton moved for sentence, Major Kay, replying to the court, said: "Nothing to say," and Colonel Streator, "nothing at all." Judge Taylor sentenced them to pay costs of prosecution and a fine of $300 each. D. F. Patterson, of Pittsburg, and John C. Bane asked the court to fix bail preparatory to an appeal to the superior court. They furnished bond in $600 each. Judge Taylor, upon the return of the verdict, stated the court agreed with the verdict, which was warranted by the evidence.

DIFFERENCES WITH GEN. HUTTON.

For One Thing, Laurier Said He Was Insubordinate.

OTTAWA, Feb. 21.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Canadian premier, made a statement relative to differences which existed between the government and General Hutton, who retired from the command of the Dominion militia and left for South African service last week. It is in the form of a reply to Colonel Prior, and was in part that differences have existed between the government and the general which it was disposed to let pass, in view of his recall to South African service; that the differences were not over broad questions of policy, but that General Hutton was insubordinate and indifferent and deliberately ignored the authority of the minister in the administration of affairs.

The remainder die in the military service in Porto Rico.

A Warning Against Mormonism.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The suppression of polygamy was further considered by the house committee on judiciary. Dr. Josiah Strong stated that while the Mormons were only one-fifteenth the number of the Presbyterians (north), the Methodists and Congregationalists, yet in a stated period they had increased more than all three combined. If the government did not act it was not unlikely that Joseph Smith's prophecy, that every state west of the Mississippi river would be brought under Mormon influence, would be fulfilled.

A PRESENT OF $5,000.

Mr. Day Testified He Accepted Money From Clark—Two Witnesses Clashed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—Senator Clark continued and completed his testimony before the senate committee on elections, but his testimony did not attract as much attention as that of other witnesses who were heard during the day. The other witnesses were Frank Corbett, recalled; E. C. Day, who was the Clark leader on the floor of the Montana house of representatives, and John B. Wellcome, who was a general manager for Mr. Clark. Mr. Wellcome did not take the stand until late and his examination in chief was not completed. He made a general and specific denial of all the allegations made by Whiteside and others. These denials were made in response to questions by Mr. Faulkner, and the witness uniformly answered, "I did not," "No" or "Nothing like it occurred."

Mr. Day admitted having accepted a present of $5,000 from Mr. Clark, and said he understood that it was given as a testimonial and as compensation for his services. The oath of office, as a member of the house, was read and seemed to produce quite an impression upon some of the committee.

Mr. Corbett and Justice Pigott were confronted for a brief period and in a rather dramatic manner. They both testified concerning a mortgage held by Mr. Corbett, and there was a direct clash in statements.

IDAHO STRIKE INVESTIGATION

Witness Said Courts Were Operating When Martial Law Was Declared.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The hearing of witnesses in the investigation of alleged improper action by the United States military authorities at Wardner, Ida., began before the house committee on military affairs. Among those present were Brigadier General Merriam and Governor Steunenberg, of Idaho.

The first witness, A. A. Fraser, a lawyer, of Shoshone county, where the trouble occurred, testified that the civil courts were doing business at the time when martial law is said to have been in operation. Representative Lentz, who conducted the inquiry, explained that this was a ground work for judging the need of martial law.

Fred C. Roberts, a lawyer, said he applied for writs of habeas corpus for the arrested men, but the courts held that they would not interfere with the action of the governor, which, in effect, the witness said, was a suspension of the writ of habeas corpus. The governor proclaimed a state of insurrection because a mine was dynamited.

SETTLED WITH MINERS.

Operators Raised Wages on Indianapolis Agreement, in the Hocking Valley.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 21.—An amicable settlement was reached at a joint conference of the Ohio Mine Workers and the Hocking Valley coal operators for the purpose of deciding upon a day wage scale for persons employed about the mines other than those coming under the Indianapolis agreement.

The new scale, which will go into effect on April 1, at which time the Indianapolis agreement becomes effective, gives inside day laborers $2.10 per day, and other labor is advanced proportionately.

Another conference will be held before the 1st of April for the purpose of considering some changes in the docking system.

An Agreement In Prospect.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The conference on the finance bill were in session several hours, but it was announced at the adjournment that no agreement had been reached upon any point, although prospects were that an agreement might be finally reached.

Another Anti-Trust Resolution.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—Representative Richardson, of Tennessee, introduced in the house a resolution aimed at the paper trust on the lines of his resolutions of Monday against the sugar trust.

Mayo's Remains Moved.

QUEBEC, Feb. 21.—The remains of the late Edwin Mayo, the actor, were taken to Philadelpia for interment.

NEED OF A CAUCUS

Fate of the Porto Rican Bill Is In Doubt.

REPUBLICANS MAY MEET TONIGHT.

The Leaders in the House Anxious. Some of the Party Members Reported to Be Opposed to the Pending Tariff Measure—Those Who Spoke.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—Again there were speeches in the house upon the Porto Rican tariff bill. Five hours were consumed in their delivery. Mr. Hopkins (Ill.) spoke in support of the bill and Mr. Newlands (Nev.) and Mr. Swanson (Va.) in opposition to it. The speakers devoted themselves almost exclusively to the constitutional question involved and were listened to with attention. The Republican leaders are becoming nervous over the fate of the bill. They have only a majority of 14 over the opposition, which is solidly opposed to the measure. Eight votes from the Republican side would, therefore, defeat, and there are from 10 to 15 Republican votes in doubt.

A movement for a Republican caucus is being agitated. The general understanding was that one would be held tonight. The Republicans reported to be opposed to the bill are Messrs. McCall, Massachusetts; Littlefield, Maine; Powers, Vermont; Thompkins, New York; Bromwell, Ohio; Larimer, Illinois; Heatwole, Minneapolis; Tongue, Oregon; Loud, California; Jones and Cushman, Washington, and Crumpacker, Indiana.

GIVE FILIPINOS SELF-GOVERNMENT.

The Burden of Mr. Kenny's Speech in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—Discussion of the Philippine question was resumed for a time in the senate, Mr. Kenny speaking against the retention by the United States of the islands and urging that the Filipinos be accorded the right to govern themselves.

After the passage of 52 pension bills and a number of bills on the general calendar, consideration was resumed of the Hawaiian government bill. Some amendments were agreed to, but consideration of the measure was not concluded.

Japs Wanted to Fight.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Feb. 21.—The Japanese residents of this province have renewed their offer to raise and equip, at their own personal expense, troops of at least 100 trained men, 50 of them formerly soldiers in the army of Japan, for service with the British forces in South Africa. The Japanese are eager to go to the front, and all the volunteers have made themselves eligible for service by taking out papers of British citizenship.

Canada Made Protests.

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 21.—Hon. William Mulock stated in the house that the government had made a strong protest to the British government and the governments of New South Wales and Victoria against the concessions granted by Australia to the Eastern Extension Cable Company, which would have the effect of jeopardizing the construction of the Pacific cable.

Accused of Committing Frauds.

CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—A capias was issued for the arrest of James Mullhall, 1841 Wabash avenue, head of the Merchant Commission company, charging him with fraudulently obtaining on credit consignments from commission houses, selling the goods for cash and eluding creditors. It is thought he has secured over $50,000 from houses in various parts of the United States.

Buller Thinks Boers Will Leave Ladysmith.

ASSEMBLE TO OPPOSE ROBERTS.

Relaxing Their Hold of Different Positions—British Pursuers May Soon Occupy Bloemfontein—British Losses During War Aggregate 11,102.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—The Boers are leaving all their positions held by them on British territory and are concentrating for the defense of their own. Sir Redvers Buller thinks they are about to raise the siege of Ladysmith, and this is the large news of the day.

General Clements reports that the force confronting him has been greatly diminished. Ten thousand men are estimated to have gone from the Colesberg district alone. The Boers are also retreating their steps from Zululand. Thus they are relaxing their hold on all sides in order to assemble to oppose Lord Roberts. He is pressing on steadily toward Bloemfontein. This is shown by his inconsequential telegram from Paardeberg, 50 or 60 miles away. Doubtless he

Nothing has been heard from the case of Cronje for two days. Although the last words of the war office were that there was no news for publication there is a strong disposition to believe that favorable information has been received, but is being withheld until the operations culminate in something more conclusive. There is an equally strong disposition to think that General Cronje has got away.

Owing to the lack of transport, the British are not likely to invade Boer territory, except where Lord Roberts is operating. General Buller will have to stop at the Drakensburg mountains. Probably a part of his 40,000 men will ultimately join the legions of Lord Roberts.

If, as General Buller avers, the Boers are retreating from him, then the news on every side is favorable to the British.

Nevertheless troops continue to go up. The war office thinks the call to veterans to rejoin the colors, together with the bounty, will bring 45,000 men to the home defense. The urgency with which the home defense is pressed excites some wonder.

With the casualties just reported the British losses in killed, wounded and captured now aggregate 11,102.

HALF KILLED OR MISSING.

Boers Shelled the British Convoy, Before Taking It.

CRADOCK, Cape Colony, Feb. 21.—Details have arrived here with respect to the capture of the British convoy at Riet river. It appears that the wagons were lagged near the drift and that the convoy was attacked by 1,800 Boers with four guns. The shelling continued all day.

One hundred and eighty wagons were captured, containing provisions and forage. Half the drivers and leaders were killed or are missing.

"The Cape police have a large hall, with a piano. The Mafeking hotel dining room seats 40. All these have been dug out and are impervious to shells."

STREATOR AND KAY GUILTY.

Jury Convicted Them of Embracery in Hazlett Case.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The jury found the defendants guilty in the case against Lieutenant Colonel James B. R. Streater, of Washington, and Major J. C. Kay, of Pittsburg, who were charged with embracery and conspiracy, the specific act being the attempt to influence a juror. Frank Watson, who was sitting on a case at the May quarter sessions court in which Major Samuel Hazlett, a friend of Kay and Streater, was acquitted of embezzlement as a banker. At the November term Hazlett was convicted.

When District Attorney Templeton moved for sentence, Major Kay, replying to the court, said: "Nothing to say," and Colonel Streater, "nothing at all." Judge Taylor sentenced them to pay costs of prosecution and a fine of $300 each. D. F. Patterson, of Pittsburg, and John C. Bane asked the court to fix bail preparatory to an appeal to the superior court. They furnished bond in $600 each. Judge Taylor, upon the return of the verdict, stated the court agreed with the verdict, which was warranted by the evidence.

DIFFERENCES WITH GEN. HUTTON.

For One Thing, Laurier Said He Was Insubordinate.

OTTAWA, Feb. 21.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Canadian premier, made a statement relative to differences which existed between the government and General Hutton, who retired from the command of the Dominion militia and left for South African service last week. It is in the form of a reply to Colonel Prior, and was in part that differences have existed between the government and the general which it was disposed to let pass, in view of his recall to South African service; that the differences were not over broad questions of policy, but that General Hutton was insubordinate and indifferent and deliberately ignored the authority of the minister in the administration of affairs.

Eighty Who Died In Cuba and Porto Rico.

The remainder died in the military service in Porto Rico.

A Warning Against Mormonism.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The suppression of polygamy was further considered by the house committee on judiciary. Dr. Josiah Strong stated that while the Mormons were only one-fifteenth the number of the Presbyterians (north), the Methodists and Congregationalists, yet in a stated period they had increased more than all three combined. If the government did not act it was not unlikely that Joseph Smith's prophecy, that every state west of the Mississippi river would be brought under Mormon influence, would be fulfilled.

A PRESENT OF $5,000.

Mr. Day Testified He Accepted Money From Clark—Two Witnesses Clashed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—Senator Clark continued and completed his testimony before the senate committee on elections, but his testimony did not attract as much attention as that of other witnesses who were heard during the day. The other witnesses were Frank Corbett, recalled; E. C. Day, who was the Clark leader on the floor of the Montana house of representatives, and John B. Wellcome, who was a general manager for Mr. Clark. Mr. Wellcome did not take the stand until late and his examination in chief was not completed. He made a general and specific denial of all the allegations made by Whiteside and others. These denials were made in response to questions by Mr. Faulkner, and the witness uniformly answered, "I did not," "No" or "Nothing like it occurred."

Mr. Day admitted having accepted a present of $5,000 from Mr. Clark, and said he understood that it was given as a testimonial and as compensation for his services. The oath of office, as a member of the house, was read and seemed to produce quite an impression upon some of the committee.

Mr. Corbett and Justice Pigott were confronted for a brief period and in a rather dramatic manner. They both testified concerning a mortgage held by Mr. Corbett, and there was a direct clash in statements.

IDAHO STRIKE INVESTIGATION

Witness Said Courts Were Operating When Martial Law Was Declared.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The hearing of witnesses in the investigation of alleged improper action by the United States military authorities at Wardner, Idaho, began before the house committee on military affairs. Among those present were Brigadier General Merriam and Governor Steunenberg, of Idaho.

The first witness, A. A. Fraser, a lawyer, of Shoshone county, where the trouble occurred, testified that the civil courts were doing business at the time when martial law is said to have been in operation. Representative Lentz, who conducted the inquiry, explained that this was a ground work for judging the need of martial law.

Fred C. Roberts, a lawyer, said he applied for writs of habeas corpus for the arrested men, but the courts held that they would not interfere with the action of the governor, which, in effect, the witness said, was a suspension of the writ of habeas corpus. The governor proclaimed a state of insurrection because a mine was dynamited.

Operators Raised Wages on Indianapolis Agreement, in the Hocking Valley.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 21.—An amicable settlement was reached at a joint conference of the Ohio Mine Workers and the Hocking Valley coal operators for the purpose of deciding upon a day wage scale for persons employed about the mines other than those coming under the Indianapolis agreement.

The new scale, which will go into effect on April 1, at which time the Indianapolis agreement becomes effective, gives inside day laborers $2.10 per day, and other labor is advanced proportionately.

Another conference will be held before the 1st of April for the purpose of considering some changes in the docking system.

An Agreement In Prospect.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The conferees on the finance bill were in session several hours, but it was announced at the adjournment that no agreement had been reached upon any point, although prospects were that an agreement might be finally reached.

Fate of the Porto Rico Bill Is In Doubt.

REPUBLICANS MAY MEET TONIGHT.

The Leaders In the House Anxious. Some of the Party Members Reported to Be Opposed to the Pending Tariff Measure—Those Who Spoke.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—Again there were speeches in the house upon the Porto Rican tariff bill. Five hours were consumed in their delivery. Mr. Hopkins (Ill.) spoke in support of the bill and Mr. Newlands (Nev.) and Mr. Swanson (Va.) in opposition to it. The speakers devoted themselves almost exclusively to the constitutional question involved and were listened to with attention. The Republican leaders are becoming nervous over the fate of the bill. They have only a majority of 14 over the opposition, which is solidly opposed to the measure. Eight votes from the Republican side would, therefore, defeat, and there are from 10 to 15 Republican votes in doubt.

A movement for a Republican caucus is being agitated. The general understanding was that one would be held tonight. The Republicans reported to be opposed to the bill are Messrs. McCall, Massachusetts; Littlefield, Maine; Powers, Vermont; Thompson, New York; Bromwell, Ohio; Lammie, Illinois; Heatwole, Minneapolis; Tongue, Oregon; Loud, California; Jones and Cushman, Washington, and Crumpacker, Indiana.

GIVE FILIPINOS SELF-GOVERNMENT.

The Burden of Mr. Kenny's Speech In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—Discussion of the Philippine question was resumed for a time in the senate, Mr. Kenny speaking against the retention by the United States of the islands and urging that the Filipinos be accorded the right to govern themselves.

After the passage of 52 pension bills and a number of bills on the general calendar, consideration was resumed of the Hawaiian government bill. Some amendments were agreed to, but consideration of the measure was not concluded.

Japs Wanted to Fight.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Feb. 21.—The Japanese residents of this province have renewed their offer to raise and equip, at their own personal expense, troops of at least 100 trained men, 50 of them formerly soldiers in the army of Japan, for service with the British forces in South Africa. The Japanese are eager to go to the front, and all the volunteers have made themselves eligible for service by taking out papers of British citizenship.

Canada Made Protests.

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 21.—Hon. William Mulock stated in the house that the government had made a strong protest to the British government and the governments of New South Wales and Victoria against the concessions granted by Australia to the Eastern Extension Cable Company, which would have the effect of jeopardizing the construction of the Pacific cable.

Accused of Committing Frauds.

PENSIONS

[From Louisville Courier Journal January 3, 1900.]

The publication in the Courier Journal yesterday of the fact that on January 1 the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's system of pensioning old employees had gone into operation and that at once 950 names were placed on the pension list, suggests a further inquiry into the relations of that great employer of labor and its men. It is well known that in that relationship the company has been a model for other corporations, never, in all the immensity of its monetary interests, losing sight of the importance of the fair treatment of its faithful servants, whether they stood at the top of the official list or ranked among the humblest of its employees. This new pension system is the outgrowth of the Company's Voluntary Relief association, which provides that in the event of sickness or disablement of its members they shall be paid a certain sum during the continuance of such condition, and a certain sum in the event of the death of the member. Membership is entirely voluntary. The Pennsylvania company itself bears all the expense of conducting the business, besides guaranteeing the fund. Thus all dues and fees paid in by the men are absolutely devoted to the relief of the members. Moreover, the company handles the money, guaranteeing 4 per cent interest thereon. A feature of the scheme was through these means, to create a fund which should ultimately be used as a pension fund. This point has now been reached for that part of the organization embracing the lines east of Pittsburgh—the Pennsylvania road proper—and, as already stated, 950 men are at once the beneficiaries of the system. It is all the more creditable, alike to the company and to the men, that this pension system is not a charity on the part of the corporation, but a wise and well managed provision whereby the men themselves are given opportunity to provide for their own old age in a self respecting way. The company assumes responsibility for the safeguarding of the funds, all the expense of management, and guarantees the investment of the funds, and thus gives the fullest cooperation in the proper working of the enterprise. The employees have three representatives in the management; the company two. The pension system provides that a man who has been 30 years in the service of the Pennsylvania Railroad company shall be retired on a pension equal to about 50 per cent of the salary or wages he earned at the time of his retirement. No further duties are expected of him, and there are no requirements other than that he shall be loyal to the interests of the company, ready with such advice, knowledge and friendly assistance as it may be in his power to give.

Pays Out Much Money.

Since wages range from $55 a month for brakemen and switchmen to $140 a month for engineers, and as the pension list at its outset includes nearly 1,000 names, it is evident that the amount of money paid out each month on account of pensions must reach a very considerable sum. Following the usual course of procedure with most of its innovations and improvements, the pension system is first introduced on the lines east of Pittsburgh. As soon as possible it will be put into effect over all the lines operated by the company.

Of course, everybody who travels is familiar with the perfect system that has made the Pennsylvania a marvel of mechanical construction and equipment. The conditions that are so valuable to the traveler could scarcely exist were there not a corresponding perfection in the organization of the human forces that have created and maintained this railroad whose name is synonymous with luxury, rapidity and safety in traveling. Excepting some of the long western lines that cover great stretches of open country, the Pennsylvania system is the longest in the world. It is actually the greatest railway operating in thickly settled sections of the country. Its operations extend from Peoria, Chicago, St. Louis, Petoskey, Mackinaw City, Louisville, Cincinnati, Toledo, Cleveland, Erie and Wheeling, W. Va., into Pittsburgh, and then east to Washington and Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York and other seaboard points.

Operated by an Army of Men.

To operate this enormous system takes an army of 100,000 men, and to conduct it successfully requires that they be formed into a perfectly harmonious organization, working with mechanical precision under one controlling head. To keep such an immense machine working smoothly, of course, requires the nicest adjustment of all the parts and all must be quickly responsive to that controlling head. Recognizing this necessity, the management has always sought to establish the most perfect relationship between the corporation and its men. If the humblest office boy or the newest brakeman has a grievance, there is always somebody he can lay it before, and he is sure that if his complaint is just its cause will be corrected. The man who starts in at the bottom knows that his promotion will be limited only by opportunity and the limitations of his own ability. Promotions are made from the ranks; the company never goes outside of its own forces to find a man to do a certain thing or to fill an office. The merit system alone prevails in making promotions, and a man's rise is slow or fast as his own ability justifies.

Advanced on Merit System.

While seniority is regarded, yet advancement depends on the faithful discharge of duty and a capacity for increased responsibility. The company simply wants the best man it can get for the job whether he has been in service two years or ten years. Favoritism of bosses, kinship, politics, religion or any other consideration but fitness cuts no figure in the line of promotion. The men know these facts, and the result is a high standard of efficiency. Another result is that the company's employees stay in its service much longer than men commonly remain with one corporation.

The company exacts a high standard on the part of its men, especially the men employed on trains. A system of physical and mental examinations has been in force for a number of years, resulting in a higher average among the men than is maintained on even other well-managed roads. The company, the public and the men themselves all derive great benefit from this fact. But, as its requirements are high, the company recognizes a corresponding obligation on its own part, and it has repeatedly sacrificed what might have been regarded as its own interests rather than sacrifice those of its employees.

Did Not Reduce Wages.

When the hard times came in 1893 and almost every corporation was lowering wages and cutting salaries, when, in common with others, the Pennsylvania Railroad company was losing money, especially on its lines west of Pittsburgh, the company entirely disregarded dividends and even ordinary and necessary improvements, rather than reduce wages. They remained absolutely as they were when the company was making money. It is true, there was less work to be done, and consequently fewer men were needed to do it, and fewer hours to do it in; but the scale of wages was maintained. Now that the company is again prosperous, the men share in its prosperity. The trainmen earn an average of 30 per cent more than they did two years ago, because they cover a greater mileage and put in more time. Not many corporations could have maintained the wage scale through 1893 and the succeeding years, but the Pennsylvania is unique among great railway companies in that the income from its resources is large enough to pay all of its fixed charges, and in hard times its faithful servants do not have to suffer.

Making Many Improvements.

The management believes in good wages; on an average a brakeman and a switchman makes $55 a month; a fireman, $65; a conductor, $100; an engineer, $140. During the five years including and following 1893, the company not only passed its dividends, but it neglected its rails, its bridges, its equipment, rather than reduce its wage scale. This was a hard policy to follow in a railroad company that has been the pioneer in so many mechanical improvements, in train service, in air brakes, in water tanks between the rails of its tracks, in a block signal system—in short, in all that makes travel safe, luxurious and swift, while at the same time building up a property that yields gross earnings of $148,000,000. Of course, the neglect of its road and equipment during these "lean years" has made it necessary to spend an extraordinarily large amount of money, now that the company can afford to put its property in the condition it ordinarily maintains. are being spent on bridges, on track, and on equipment.

One of the marked results of the policy of the company as to its employees is the raising of the physical, intellectual and moral standard of railroad service. The "rounder" has about disappeared from the ranks of the Pennsylvania employees. A man or a boy who is once enrolled in its service is sure of his place and sure of his promotion, so long as he is faithful and efficient. In sickness or distress he is cared for; if an injustice is done him, he may have wronged, and now, by this last step of a pension, the comfort of old age is assured him. Of course, it is all business, but it is business wisely and honorably conducted.

No further duties are expected of him, and there are no requirements other than that he shall be loyal to the interests of the company, ready with such advice, knowledge and friendly assistance as it may be in his power to give.

Pays Out Much Money.

Since wages range from $55 a month for brakemen and switchmen to $140 a month for engineers, and as the pension list at its outset includes nearly 1,000 names, it is evident that the amount of money paid out each month on account of pensions must reach a very considerable sum. Following the usual course of procedure with most of its innovations and improvements, the pension system is first introduced on the lines east of Pittsburgh. As soon as possible it will be put into effect over all the lines operated by the company.

Of course, everybody who travels is familiar with the perfect system that has made the Pennsylvania a marvel of mechanical construction and equipment. The conditions that are so valuable to the traveler could scarcely exist were there not a corresponding perfection in the organization of the human forces that have created and maintained this railroad whose name is synonymous with luxury, rapidity and safety in traveling. Excepting some of the long western lines that cover great stretches of open country, the Pennsylvania system is the longest in the world. It is actually the greatest railway operating in thickly settled sections of the country. Its operations extend from Peoria, Chicago, St. Louis, Petoskey, Mackinaw City, Louisville, Cincinnati, Toledo, Cleveland, Erie and Wheeling, W. Va., into Pittsburgh, and then east to Washington and Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York and other seaboard points.

Operated by an Army of Men.

To operate this enormous system takes an army of 100,000 men, and to conduct it successfully requires that they be formed into a perfectly harmonious organization, working with mechanical precision under one controlling head. To keep such an immense machine working smoothly, of course, requires the nicest adjustment of all the parts and all must be quickly responsive to that controlling head. Recognizing this necessity, the management has always sought to establish the most perfect relationship between the corporation and its men. If the humblest office boy or the newest brakeman has a grievance, there is always somebody he can lay it before, and he is sure that if his complaint is just its cause will be corrected. The man who starts in at the bottom knows that his promotion will be limited only by opportunity and the limitations of his own ability. Promotions are made from the ranks; the company never goes outside of its own forces to find a man to do a certain thing or to fill an office. The merit system alone prevails in making promotions, and a man's rise is slow or fast as his own ability justifies.

Advanced on Merit System.

While seniority is regarded, yet advancement depends on the faithful discharge of duty and a capacity for increased responsibility. The company simply wants the best man it can get for the job whether he has been in service two years or ten years. Favoritism of bosses, kinship, politics, religion or any other consideration but fitness cuts no figure in the line of promotion. The men know these facts, and the result is a high standard of efficiency. Another result is that the company's employees stay in its service much longer than men commonly remain with one corporation.

The company exacts a high standard on the part of its men, especially the men employed on trains. A system of physical and mental examinations has been in force for a number of years, resulting in a higher average among the men than is maintained on even other well-managed roads. The company, the public and the men themselves all derive great benefit from this fact. But, as its requirements are high, the company recognizes a corresponding obligation on its own part, and it has repeatedly sacrificed what might have been regarded as its own interests rather than sacrifice those of its employees.

Did Not Reduce Wages.

When the hard times came in 1893 and almost every corporation was lowering wages and cutting salaries, when, in common with others, the Pennsylvania Railroad company was losing money, especially on its lines west of Pittsburgh, the company entirely disregarded dividends and even ordinary and necessary improvements, rather than reduce wages. They remained absolutely as they were when the company was making money. It is true, there was less work to be done, and consequently fewer men were needed to do it, and fewer hours to do it in; but the scale of wages was maintained. Now that the company is again prosperous, the men share in its prosperity. The trainmen earn an average of 30 per cent more than they did two years ago, because they cover a greater mileage and put in more time. Not many corporations could have maintained the wage scale through 1893 and the succeeding years, but the Pennsylvania is unique among great railway companies in that the income from its resources is large enough to pay all of its fixed charges, and in hard times its faithful servants do not have to suffer.

Making Many Improvements.

The management believes in good wages; on an average a brakeman and a switchman makes $55 a month; a fireman, $85; a conductor, $100; an engineer, $140. During the five years including and following 1898, the company not only passed its dividends, but it neglected its rails, its bridges, its equipment, rather than reduce its wage scale. This was a hard policy to follow in a railroad company that has been the pioneer in so many mechanical improvements, in train service, in air brakes, in water tanks between the rails of its tracks, in a block signal system—in short, in all that makes travel safe, luxurious and swift, while at the same time building up a property that yields gross earnings of $148,000,000. Of course, the neglect of its road and equipment during these "lean years" has made it necessary to spend an extraordinarily large amount of money, now that the company can afford to put its property in the condition it ordinarily maintains. Many hundreds of thousands of dollars

are being spent on bridges, on track, and on equipment.

One of the marked results of the policy of the company as to its employees is the raising of the physical, intellectual and moral standard of railroad service. The "rounder" has about disappeared from the ranks of the Pennsylvania employees. A man or a boy who is once enrolled in its service is sure of his place and sure of his promotion, so long as he is faithful and efficient. In sickness or distress he is cared for; if an injustice is done him, he may have wronged, and now, by this last step of a pension, the comfort of old age is assured him. Of course, it is all business, but it is business wisely and honorably conducted.

ESCAPING GAS.

LEAK IN MAIN ON RIVER AVENUE.

Monroe Patterson to Relinquish Active Management of East End Brick Works.

There is a large leak in the gas main in River avenue, near the big washout which occurred last fall, and unless some repairs are made soon the leak may result in some damage to property in that part of the city. Yesterday afternoon, after the East End school had been dismissed, and the school children living at the west end of River avenue were returning to their homes, some boys discovered the leak. A light was applied and huge flames went up from the leak in the main. Until dark the boys played about the gas light, which at times was very large.

The machine will have the capacity of turning out 12,000 brick per day, and is the only press of its kind in this part of the county. Johnson also stated that as soon as enough brick could be secured ahead of the orders work would commence upon the erection of an additional kiln.

Mr. Monroe Patterson, who has been identified in the management of the works for the past year, will not look after affairs at the works this year. When interviewed last evening Mr. Patterson said: "Well, I guess I will let Mr. Johnson guide the shop from now on."

Relieves and Cures

Tongaline relieves pain quickly. The pain of rheumatism, gout, neuralgia and similar diseases is acute and often terrible. The first step toward a cure is to remove this agony. Two or three doses of Tongaline in quick succession take away the pain. But Tongaline does not stop there as ordinary lotions and liniments do. It deals with the poisons which cause the disease, and whether they be uric acid, sodium urate, or disease germs, Tongaline causes them to be expelled from the body by the simultaneous action of the liver, kidneys, bowels and skin.

To find relief from their agony many unfortunates have been driven to use opium or morphine. Tongaline contains neither opium or morphine. For the relief of severe headache it is far superior to the innumerable combinations of acetanilid sold as "headache cures."

Tongaline is a result of the highest discoveries in pharmaceutical science. For twenty years it has cured the diseases for which it is specific. It has received the highest endorsement from physicians. It has proved a blessing in the hands of sufferers themselves. It is harmless in its nature, sure in its action, and its use is followed by no unpleasant or dangerous results such as follow many of the treatments prescribed for rheumatism.

Take Tongaline as a preventive on the first indication of rheumatic pains, rheumatic fever, neuralgic pains or headache. It will prevent the threatened attack and remove the poisons from the system before the disease becomes chronic and stubborn. The ingredients of Tongaline act harmoniously on all the organs of elimination, the kidneys, liver, bowels and skin, so that the whole body is regenerated and purified.

REPUBLICANS, select the right man as
mayor. Vital interests are at stake.

REPUBLICANS, select the right man as
marshal. It is an important office.

REPUBLICANS, be very careful as to your councilmen. This city has been cursed by and through incompetent and bad men in councilmanic positions. You KNOW this to be a FACT. The good of the party demands that such men SHALL
NOT occupy positions of trust.

WHAN AND GRIM.

We believe that the city of East Liverpool, combined with C. F. Bough, W.
A. Weaver and S. J. Faulk, can afford to quietly laugh at Attorney Clark and his clients Whan and Grim, in the endeavor of the latter to collect money for services alleged to be due, said claim
having been rejected by city council.
Mayor Bough is a just man, and he believed that Whan and Grim had been guilty of conduct unbecoming officers of this municipality. Believing this, he exercised his ABSOLUTE RIGHT, as chief
magistrate of the municipality and suspended them. Further, we believe he did
right, and that he produced evidence
which, before any other tribunal in the
land save the council as then constituted,
would have sustained Mayor Bough and
have dismissed from the force the said
Whan and Grim. Attorney Clark has carried his THREAT into execution. It don't cost much to do such a thing, and
may act as a safety valve to the disciple
of Blackstone.

CIRCUIT COURT DECISION.

Section 917, Revised Statutes, directs
the commissioners of the various counties to cause their annual report to be published in two newspapers of different political parties. In Franklin county the report was published in the Columbus Press Post (Democratic) and
the Columbus Dispatch (Independent).
The State Journal (Republican)
sought to enjoin the commissioners
from publishing the report in the Dispatch because it was not a paper of a political party opposed to the Press Post
party, but simply a neutral or independent paper without a party. Judge
Summers of the circuit court, decided that "An independent paper is not a newspaper of a political party within

Wine of Cardui

It is the devout wish of nearly all people to live to a ripe old age.
None of us want to die young. This universal desire can be realized if care be taken of the health in early and middle life. A little precaution then will add many years to our existence. Death can be kept away a long time. Happy, healthy old age will be the lot of the woman who promptly corrects the ailments which afflict her sex. In youth, Wine of Cardui will take the female child safely over the dividing line between girlhood and womanhood. As a wife she needs it to help her through the trials of pregnancy and childbirth with as little discomfort as possible. At the Change of Life it will help her over the dangerous place that appears in her pathway between 40 and 50. Then will come many years of truly blissful existence. She will grow old slowly and gracefully. To the last
she will preserve that charm and beauty which are always characteristic of perfectly healthy grandmothers. It is for women alone to decide whether they will be healthy or sick. The remedy for their sickness is close at hand.

ALL ABOUT A POLE.

BRADSHAW ST. RESIDENTS WERE INCENSED.

President Peach Was Appealed to and Sent a Policeman to Stand Guard.

An electric light pole on Bradshaw avenue was the cause of a small war this morning. The sidewalk where the company wanted to locate the pole is only about four feet wide and if they had put the pole up there wouldn't have been room for pedestrians to get past. The residents kicked, but to no avail and finally complaint was made to President Peach. He went to the fire station and Officer Woods was sent to the spot with orders to arrest the first man who attempted to dig the hole. When Peach arrived at the place he found a lot of angry workmen but Woods was doing his duty and there was no work going on. The matter was fixed up and the company will locate the pole at another place.

GOOD WORDS FOR METSCH.

Attorney A. H. Clark Pays an Unsolicited Tribute to His Splendid Character.

A representative of the NEWS REVIEW was discussing the coming municipal election with Attorney A. H. Clark this morning when the attorney paid a glowing tribute to the candidacy of Mr. Christian Metsch. He said:

"While I am taking no part in the primary election yet I desire to approve all that has been said in the NEWS REVIEW in regard to Mr. Metsch and his candidacy for the mayoralty. I have known Mr. Metsch for nearly a quarter of a century and have frequently had business relations with him, as well as being connected with him a good portion of the time in official positions. I have always found him fair and liberal and unbending when matters of justice were to be settled by him. He was always interested in any public move for the good of the city, and filled the official positions he held in a loyal manner, always working for the interests of the taxpayers as if they were his own. I am satisfied he would make a good mayor and know that he is well qualified to perform the duties of the office."

WITHDRAWN.

L. M. Thomas Will Not Be a Candidate for the Board of Education.

Lawrence M. Thomas this morning notified Clerk Hanley to not put his name on the ticket as a candidate for the board of education, as he has no desire for the job and would not serve if he was elected. This leaves but four candidates in the race and four to be elected.

The price paid for the lot was $10,000. Sites must be cheap in Steubenville.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

"The Girl From Frisco."

The Wilson Theater company at the Grand last night presented "The Signal of Liberty." The company is fair, but the play is full of impossibilities and deals with the blowing up of the Maine
in a dime novel style. The hero arrives at the proper time to prevent all signs of anybody getting hurt, and parades
around the stage and talks of Old Glory
in a way that delights the gallery. The specialties are fine. Tonight the company will play "The Girl From Frisco," when they will have a play that is worthy of their ability. If you want to see a good show go to the Grand tonight.

NO OBSERVANCE.

The East Liverpool Schools Will Not Observe Washington's Birthday.

The public schools will be closed tomorrow in honor of Washington's birthday and from the fact that it is a legal holiday. School will be held Friday, but no general arrangement has been made to commemorate the event. Some of the rooms will have literary exercises bearing on the subject of Washington.

Postoffice Arrangements.

Tomorrow being Washington's birthday and a legal holiday, the following hours will be observed at the postoffice:
Money order and registry window will be closed all day; stamp and general delivery window will be open from 7 a. m.
to 10 a. m. and from 6 p. m. to 7:45 p. m.; carriers will make their regular morning delivery only; carriers' windows will be open from 6:45 p. m. to 7:45 p. m. All mails will be received and dispatched as usual.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE.

Congregation Gave Rev. Man-
sell a Beautiful Rocker
Last Night.

After returning from the Earl Wilfley
lecture at the Christian church last night
Rev. Walter Mansell was surprised at his home, 203 Jefferson street, by the members of the congregation, accompanied by Mr. Wilfley. They reminded the pastor that yesterday was his birthday anniversary, and produced a handsome rocker as a gift from the congregation
in honor of the event. No formal addresses were made, the reception taking
the form of heartier personal congratulations and good wishes. During the evening Mr. Wilfley gave several readings and a most enjoyable time was spent.

Mr. Mansell, who resigned the pastorate a week ago, came to this city a year ago from Wellsville. He has been four years in the ministry. He is at present considering three calls and will decide
this week. Last night's presentation was especially appreciated by him in the circumstances of his announced retirement from the city church.

GREENE COUNTY GAS

Now Being Used by the Ohio
Valley and Giving a Good Supply.

Auditor A. F. Holliday, of the Ohio
Valley Gas company, in a conversation
last night, said: "We are now using gas from Greene county, Pa. The pressure has been such that we have had to disconnect our pumping stations and have been using high pressure gas. Our through lines are not completed yet, but we expect to have a main high pressure
gas line through from Greene county to Liverpool. When this new line is connected up we shall be independent of the pumping stations which will only be used in case of emergency and held in reserve. So far the gas is domestic and commercial, seem to be entirely satisfied with the new supply."

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

"The Girl From Frisco."

The Wilson Theater company at the Grand last night presented "The Signal
of Liberty." The company is fair, but
the play is full of impossibilities and
deals with the blowing up of the Maine
in a dime novel style. The hero arrives
at the proper time to prevent all signs of
anybody getting hurt, and parades
around the stage and talks of Old Glory
in a way that delights the gallery. The specialties are fine. Tonight the company will play "The Girl From Frisco,"
when they will have a play that is worthy of their ability. If you want to see a good show go to the Grand tonight.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE.

Congregation Gave Rev. Man-
sell a Beautiful Rocker
Last Night.

After returning from the Earl Wilfley
lecture at the Christian church last night
Rev. Walter Mansell was surprised at his home, 203 Jefferson street, by the members of the congregation, accompanied by Mr. Wilfley. They reminded the pastor that yesterday was his birthday
anniversary, and produced a handsome
rocker as a gift from the congregation
in honor of the event. No formal addresses were made, the reception taking
the form of heartier personal congratulations and good wishes. During the evening Mr. Wilfley gave several readings and a most enjoyable time was spent.

Mr. Mansell, who resigned the pastorate a week ago, came to this city a year ago from Wellsburg. He has been four years in the ministry. He is at present
considering three calls and will decide
this week. Last night's presentation
was especially appreciated by him in the circumstances of his announced retirement from the city church.

GREENE COUNTY GAS

Now Being Used by the Ohio
Valley and Giving a Good Supply.

Auditor A. F. Holliday, of the Ohio
Valley Gas company, in a conversation
last night, said: "We are now using
gas from Greene county, Pa. The pressure has been such that we have had to disconnect our pumping stations and have been using high pressure gas. Our through lines are not completed yet, but
we expect to have a main high pressure
gas line through from Greene county to Liverpool. When this new line is connected up we shall be independent of
the pumping stations which will only be used in case of emergency and held in reserve. So far the customers, domestic and commercial, seem to be entirely
satisfied with the new supply."

CONFERENCE TODAY.

Kentucky Attorneys Try to Agree on Suits.

TO SAVE CONFLICT OF COURTS.

Want the Decision Regarding One Injunction Application to Settle Both. Democratic Legislature Reconfirmed the Election of Goebel.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 21.—The attorneys for Taylor and Beckham held a joint conference today for the purpose of discussing propositions to settle which of the two injunction suits relating to the contest over the governorship shall have precedence on the consolidation of both cases, in order to avoid a clash between courts over the question of jurisdiction. The Beckham suit is set for a hearing before Judge Cantrill, at Georgetown, Friday, and the attorneys will attempt to agree upon a plan of action and facts forming the basis of the suit, and as to what judge the suit shall be tried before.

The Democratic members of the two houses of the legislature met in joint session and by a vote of 74 to 2 ratified the former proceedings by which William Goebel was declared governor and J. C. W. Beckham lieutenant governor, and through which Beckham, since the death of Goebel, claims title to the office of governor. The Republican members of the legislature remained away from the joint session, having decided in caucus not to attend.

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTIONS.

Ten Republican Magistrates Elected In Philadelphia—Results In Other Places In the State.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—The returns show the election of the ten Republican candidates for magistrates, Messrs. South, Cunningham, Smith, Gillespie, Harrison, Kockersperger, Ackerman, Stratton, Wagner and Pullinger.

For the other six the leaders in the returns thus far are O'Brien (Democrat and Municipal League), Lloyd (Democrat), and Ladner, Risinbrown and Jermon (Municipal League).

Later returns point to the election of Preil (Democrat) as the sixteenth man.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Feb. 21.—Big Democratic gains resulted in a change in the political complexion of both council and school board.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 21.—Honors were about even at the election, although the Republicans elected enough councilmen to retain control of the common and select councils.

McKEESPORT, Pa., Feb. 21.—A. B. O'Neil defeated Dr. R. J. Black for mayor by a plurality of 25.

ALTOONA, Pa., Feb. 21.—All three Republican school directors were elected by about 600 majority. Three Republican and two Democratic select councilmen were elected, leaving that body stand: Democrats, 5; Republicans, 4. Each party elected four common councilmen. That branch is a tie, 9 to 9.

The bitter contest for alderman in the Third ward between Lewis Casey (Democrat), president of common council, and the present incumbent, George A. Dobyne, who was defeated for the Democratic nomination, resulted in victory for Dobyne by 78 votes. Dobyne was endorsed by Republicans.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 21.—Controller Joseph E. Lewis (Republican) was re-elected by about 14,000 votes. Republicans continued to control councils.

COLENZO WAS OCCUPIED.

Hart Took It After Weak Resistance. Boers Apparently In Full Retreat.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—A dispatch received at the war office from General Buller contained the following:

"BLOW'S FARM, Tuesday, Feb. 20.—4:10 p. m.—The fusilier brigade yesterday took Hlangwane hill, the right of the enemy's position and commanding Colenso, the rest of the force advancing toward the Tugela. This morning the enemy has withdrawn all the troops north of the Tugela and had practically evacuated Colenso. Today General Hart occupied Colenso after a very slight resistance by a weak rear guard, and we hold the line of the Tugela, on the south side, from Colenso to Eagles Nest. The enemy seem to be in full retreat and apparently are only holding the position they occupy across the Colenso-Ladysmith railway, where it is close to the angle of the Tugela, with a weak rear guard. Hart's advance guard is crossing at Colenso.

"Our casualties yesterday and today have, I hope, been but few."

DECIDED FOR COMPANY.

Ohio Supreme Court Made a Decision Effecting State Food and Dairy Commissioner.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 21.—The supreme court, in a decision handed down, holds that the state food and dairy commissioner has no right to demand and compel makers and dealers in foods to furnish him with samples of their products or goods for examination.

The decision was made in the case of the state ex rel Reynolds, a deputy inspector, against a dairy company. In this case Reynolds had demanded samples of the company's product for analysis and was refused. The lower courts here had held for the company, and the supreme court in its decision affirmed this decision.

DELEGATIONS HUSTLING.

Both Milwaukee and Kansas City Confident of Getting the Democratic Convention.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The delegations from Milwaukee and Kansas City, and so far as rivalry seems to be confined to these two places, put in a busy day, advancing the claims of their respective cities as the place for holding the next Democratic national convention. Both cities have ample headquarters at the Raleigh hotel, where the national committee is to meet. Probably not more than 25 of the national committee have reached here and they are widely scattered around the various hotels and in private residences.

National committeeman Wall expressed the opinion that a majority of the committee now in the city are favorable to the Wisconsin city, while ex-Congressman Dockery was equally positive that the Missouri city will secure the convention.

BRYAN TO BE JOINT NOMINEE.

Allen So Stated to Populists Convention Place and Date.

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 21.—At the meeting of the Populist national committee, presided over by Senator Butler, a proposition from the Texas delegation that May 9 be fixed as the date was amended to permit a committee to decide on both time and place. It was opposed vigorously by the Texas delegation as "cowardly and truckling to the Democrats."

"Bryan will be the nominee of both Democrats and Populists," said Senator Allen, "and the question of date makes little difference anyhow." The amendment to refer to a committee was voted down, and Wednesday, May 9, the same date as that of the middle-of-the-road convention at Cincinnati, was decided upon. Sioux Falls, S. D., was selected for the meeting place.

Chicago Wheat Market.

CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—All the grain markets received a set back Tuesday, even the strength of corn evaporating under a pressure of long stuff showing profits. Wheat was depressed by weak cables and poor demand, and closed $\frac{3}{4}$ @ $\frac{1}{2}$ c lower. Corn declined $\frac{1}{4}$ @ $\frac{1}{2}$ c and oats $\frac{1}{4}$ @ $\frac{1}{2}$ c. CONFERENCE TODAY.

Kentucky Attorneys Try to Agree on Suits.

TO SAVE CONFLICT OF COURTS.

Want the Decision Regarding One Injunction Application to Settle Both. Democratic Legislature Reconfirmed the Election of Goebel.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 21.—The attorneys for Taylor and Beckham held a joint conference today for the purpose of discussing propositions to settle which of the two injunction suits relating to the contest over the governorship shall have precedence on the consolidation of both cases, in order to avoid a clash between courts over the question of jurisdiction. The Beckham suit is set for a hearing before Judge Cantrill, at Georgetown, Friday, and the attorneys will attempt to agree upon a plan of action and facts forming the basis of the suit, and as to what judge the suit shall be tried before.

The Democratic members of the two houses of the legislature met in joint session and by a vote of 74 to 2 ratified the former proceedings by which William Goebel was declared governor and J. C. W. Beckham lieutenant governor, and through which Beckham, since the death of Goebel, claims title to the office of governor. The Republican members of the legislature remained away from the joint session, having decided in caucus not to attend.

Ten Republican Magistrates Elected in Philadelphia—Results in Other Places in the State.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—The returns show the election of the ten Republican candidates for magistrates, Messrs. South, Cunningham, Smith, Gillespie, Harrison, Kockersperger, Ackerman, Stratton, Wagner and Pullinger.

For the other six the leaders in the returns thus far are O'Brien (Democrat and Municipal League), Lloyd (Democrat), and Ladner, Risinbrown and Jermon (Municipal League).

Later returns point to the election of Preil (Democrat) as the sixteenth man. BETHLEHEM, Pa., Feb. 21.—Big Democratic gains resulted in a change in the political complexion of both council and school board.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 21.—Honors were about even at the election, although the Republicans elected enough councilmen to retain control of the common and select councils.

McKEESPORT, Pa., Feb. 21.—A. B. O'Neil defeated Dr. R. J. Black for mayor by a plurality of 25.

ALTOONA, Pa., Feb. 21.—All three Republican school directors were elected by about 600 majority. Three Republican and two Democratic select councilmen were elected, leaving that body stand: Democrats, 5; Republicans, 4. Each party elected four common councilmen. That branch is a tie, 9 to 9.

The bitter contest for alderman in the Third ward between Lewis Casey (Democrat), president of common council, and the present incumbent, George A. Dobyne, who was defeated for the Democratic nomination, resulted in victory for Dobyne by 78 votes. Dobyne was endorsed by Republicans.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 21.—Controller Joseph E. Lewis (Republican) was re-elected by about 14,000 votes. Republicans continued to control councils.

THE GRIM-WHAN SUITS ARE SET FOR HEARING

On a Legal Holiday and the Question May Arise as to Whether They Can be Tried.

The suits of Grim and Whan against Mayor Bough, the city of East Liverpool, W. A. Weaver and S. J. Faulk for $151.75 and $160.50, respectively, are set for hearing in the court of 'Squire Rose tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Tomorrow will be a legal holiday, and the question arises as to whether the suit can be legally tried on that day. Mayor Bough, when questioned on the subject, said he realized it was a legal holiday, but had nothing to say on the matter. He said his nerves were steady and he was not in the least alarmed. He remarked that some people were easy prey for attorneys, and he didn't propose to cross any bridges until he came to them.

Solicitor McGarry will defend the cases, and he said that he had not looked the law up in regard to legal holidays but had thought of the matter.

Attorney Clark, counsel for the plaintiffs, said the fact that tomorrow will be a legal holiday made no difference in regard to the case and that it would not be heard tomorrow anyway as a postponement would be asked.
